7 COST BASIS METHOD

Cost Basis refers to the amount you paid to purchase shares in a particular mutual fund. The difference between what you receive when you sell your shares and your cost basis (what you paid) will determine the gain or loss you realize.

You must select a cost basis reporting method for each account that you open. The cost basis method you elect will determine the order in which shares are redeemed and how your cost basis information is calculated and subsequently reported to you and to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Please consult your tax advisor to determine which cost basis method best suits your specific situation.

If you do not select a cost basis method, your account will default to Average Cost.

Average Cost Averages the purchase price of all acquired Covered Shares.

FIFO First In, First Out: oldest shares are redeemed first.

LIFO Last In, First Out: newest shares are redeemed first.

HIFO Highest Cost, First Out: highest cost shares are redeemed first.

LOFO Lowest Cost, First Out: lowest cost shares are redeemed first.

HILT High Cost Long Term: shares with a long-term holding period are sold first, beginning with those with the highest cost.

HIST High Cost Short Term: shares with a short-term holding period are sold first, beginning with those with the highest cost.

LILT Low Cost Long Term: shares with a long-term holding period are sold first, beginning with those with the lowest cost.

LIST Low Cost Short Term: shares with a short-term holding period are sold first, beginning with those with the lowest cost.

SLID Specific Lot Identification: specify shares to sell. This option is offered only at the time of redemption.

I choose the following cost basis method for the following Pear Tree Funds:

I agree that none of the Pear Tree Funds, their distributor, transfer agent or affiliated companies, or their directors, trustees or employees will be liable for any loss, cost or expense as a result of acting on such instructions, provided the Fund employs reasonable procedures to confirm that such instructions are genuine.
- For each Fund account, I authorize and consent to the consolidation of mailing (i.e., "householding") of documents such as prospectuses, shareholder reports, proxies and other similar documents. I understand that I may contact the Funds to revoke my consent.
